Tournament COST

$420 for all teams who are not traveling by plane
$75 for all teams who are flying to the tournament

*I know that I originally stated that the tournament fee would be $400 on the contract, however after crunching the numbers I had to add an additional $20. I also understand that this fee is higher than normal, however considering the cost that teams who are flying to the tournament pay, its still a much better bargain for teams who drive.

Teams who are flying to the tournament: UCD WILL NOT be providing lodging like last year. However, if you notice your tournament fee is much less. Please use that money to find yourself lodging.
